
OXBODY PROMOTIONS, INC.

August 1st, 2010

Attention Natural Bodybuilding, Figure & Fitness Athletes. In an effort to increase NGA Pro Show Earnings and to continue Oxbody Promotions commitment to promoting first class shows, we have made the decision to move the 2010 NGA Pro/Am Music City Night of the Champions to a later date in 2011. We will set the date after our NGA Promoters meeting in the winter and once the date is set, we will post it on our website (www.oxbodypromotions.com) and other media/social networking outlets. We look forward to seeing each and everyone of you compete on stage at your best shape yet in 2011!

Yours in health,

Marty Lotito
